

Spanish Liturgical Music Workshop

Sponsored by the Arlington Chapter of the National Association of Pastoral Musicians

Saturday Sept 28, 9am-12:45pm at The Cathedral of Saint Thomas More
3901 Cathedral Ave, Arlington
Free! No cost!

Join us for a wonderful event led by Olfary Gutiérrez and John Miller, respectively the Coordinator of Hispanic Music Ministry and the Director of Music Ministries of the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart of Newark, New Jersey.

The workshop will offer insights and strategies on:

- music selection
- voice training
- learning to read music
- adapting to different styles
- bilingual liturgy
- how all music ministers and clergy can learn from and work with one another successfully and beautifully.

All involved in Spanish Music Ministry are welcome:

- choir directors
- choir members
- instrumentalists
- cantors
- those who assist or coordinate with them, such as clergy and music directors

PLEASE register in advance: email your name and parish, and if you are coming as a group the number of people in your group, to bob.malinowski@verizon.net. Refreshments and materials will be provided.

For more info contact David Mathers at dmathers@stmaryfred.org or 540-373-6491.